To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Rick, Anne, and Wade Langley of Langley Builders in Burnet, Texas.

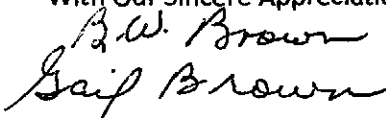

Choosing a builder, for us, was a very important decision. We needed to ensure we had the right partner as we are in our seventies and intend for this to be our last home. The process is one we took seriously and spent a great deal of time selecting the right builder for us. Ultimately, it came down to a comfort level with the Langley's. Not only did we want someone qualified, cost effective, and reputable, but someone that we felt would make for a pleasant experience.

We couldn't have made a better choice. The Langley's met and/or exceeded all of our requirements. In addition, we now consider them friends as well. Our experience went beyond the builder/client relationship to one of having trusted advocates to guide and advise us during the difficult home building process. There is a great deal of comfort and confidence that comes with such a good working relationship.

The quality of the work is something we are very proud of. It started with the design phase and continued through each step. During construction, there were things that were needed, but not planned for, the Langley's made this an easy set of circumstances and went beyond the contractual obligations. While not required or necessary, it reflects the type of character and old fashioned honesty and integrity that is hard to find in today's business environment.

Our new Langley home is all we had hoped it would be . From the start of construction through the landscaping and finishes like a water sprinkler system and fencing, it is a job well done. We will have fond memories of the building process and more importantly, our relationship with Ricky, Anne, and Wade. We know we have a Langley home that will provide years of enjoyment and peace of mind.

With Our Sincere Appreciation,

Billy and Gail Brown
